Notice to Debtor

- IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR IN COURT AT THE DATE AND TIME PROVIDED, YOU MAY LOSE THE RIGHT TO PROTECT MONEY IN A BANK, SAVINGS BANK, OR CREDIT UNION ACCOUNT AND OTHER ASSETS AND COULD BE SUBJECT TO ARREST AND IMPRISONMENT.
- If you go to court on the court date listed in section 2 you may be able to claim certain protections (exemptions) at that court date. See How to File an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption for information on how to file this Motion.
- If you need to go to court earlier than the court date listed in section 2, you can file an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
- You have a right to challenge the employer's calculations of withholding that the employer includes in their Answer to this Citation.
- If you do not attend court and you work for this employer, the court may garnish your paycheck.

Notice to Employer

- You are prohibited from making or allowing any transfer or other disposition of, or interfering with, any property not exempt from enforcement of a judgment, a deduction order or garnishment, property belonging to the judgment debtor or to which they may be entitled or which may thereafter be acquired by or become due to them, and from paying over or otherwise disposing of any monies not so exempt, which are due to the judgment debtor. This prohibition shall remain in effect until further order of court or termination of the proceeding. You are not required to withhold the payment of any monies beyond double the amount of the total sum due to the judgment creditor.
- Warning: If you fail to appear in court as directed in this notice, you may be arrested and brought before the court to answer to a charge of contempt of court, which may be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail.
- If you do not answer or attend the court date listed in section 2, the judge may do one of two things:
 - Enter a conditional judgment; OR
 - Issue a rule to show cause.
- If the court enters a conditional judgment, you will have 30 days to answer or appear. If you fail to do so, then the court may enter a final judgment against you.
- If there is a rule to show cause court date, you will have to explain why you did not attend court on the court date and why you should not be found in contempt of court. If you do not attend the rule to show cause on the set court date, the judge may find you in contempt, and you might be arrested and jailed.

3. The employer's duties and obligations:

- A. Fill out and return the Answer on page 5 on or before the court date listed on page 1. The Answer asks basic questions about the debtor and their income.
- B. The first question in the Answer is whether the debtor is employed by you or works for you under some other contractual relationship.
- i. If they do not, then check the "No" box, and send the form back.
 - ii. If the debtor does work for you, answer the rest of the Answer about pay periods, hourly wage, gross pay, and required deductions from gross pay.
The Answer explains how to calculate the amount you need to withhold for the garnishment/turnover order.
 - iii. If a positive amount is listed on section 4M on the Answer, withhold that amount until there is a court order to turn over the wages or the Citation is dismissed.
 - iv. If income varies, withholding must be recalculated for every pay period.
- C. Sign the form, file the original with the Circuit Clerk who issued the Citation, and keep a copy for yourself. Give or send a copy of the completed Answer to the debtor and to the creditor.
- D. Do not withhold any wages from the debtor if the debtor's income after taxes is equal to or less than 45 times (x) the federal or Illinois minimum wage, whichever is greater. See the Exempt Wages Table below to determine what wages are exempt based on the current minimum wage. If the debtor's wages after taxes are more than this exemption, then you should withhold either (1) 15% of the debtor's gross income or (2) the debtor's income after taxes minus the exemption, whichever is less. See how to calculate the amount in the Answer.

Do not turn over any funds until you receive a wage deduction/turnover order.
